Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Aries on the First Cusp

A strong urge for personal independence prevails. You are feeling energetic, courageous, and enthusiastic in response to new and challenging situations. You appear to be viewing the outside world as if for the first time. Owning a car is a necessity now. You want to come and go as you please, without having to depend on others. New opportunities, ventures, and undertakings have entered your life -- or will soon. You can push ahead with confidence, for you have the ability to achieve your personal aim or goal in life. Men are likely to play an active role, either assisting you or as a source of friction. Be careful in your dealings with others; they may resent your assertive and rather overbearing attitude. And slow down! Hasty actions can create accidents. You may be prone at this time to sinus conditions, high fevers, or migraine headaches. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Mars, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Ascendant Trine Pluto (Prg-Nat) Sep 11, 2003

New changes, phases, and alterations of personal affairs are likely to affect conditions and circumstances in your immediate environment. New contacts or relationships may alter and improve present situations. There is a possibility of relocation, change of vocational interests, a new style of dress or hairdo, and in some cases -- even corrective plastic surgery. There is the urge to renew or rejuvenate the image you project to others, and you may unconsciously begin to change your personality. There is a likelihood of gain through joint finances, insurance, taxes, workers' compensation, alimony, or lottery winnings.

Ascendant Opposition Neptune (Prg-Nat) Dec 20, 2003

If you can lift the illusionary veil that surrounds your relationships and see others as they really are, you may be able to avoid a disappointing, deceptive emotional experience. This is not the time to enter into a marriage or business partnership. Matters are not as they appear on the surface. There is an inclination to be easily influenced and led by others, or suffer betrayal of confidence. You may also be too trusting, placing yourself at a professional disadvantage which can result in a financial or business loss. You may come in contact with hospitals or institutions, or , with people who are emotionally or mentally disturbed and will try to pawn their troubles off onto your shoulders. Avoid letting your imagination get the best of you. If you feel ill, seek professional advice.

Taurus on the Second Cusp

Your impulsive tendencies are diminishing as you develop a more practical approach in handling personal finances. There is added determination and concentration toward the increase of personal earning. No matter what type of work you do, you will pull your own weight; however, you get very angry when you see others slacking. Women will play an important role in financial assistance. Some, depending upon their age, may be a source for heavy expenditures.

Gemini on the Third Cusp

You are becoming more flexible and less dogmatic in your mental attitude. Typing, writing, teaching, lecturing, frequent short trips, and other forms of communications will dominate much of your free time. Try to avoid the tendency to tackle too many projects at one time. Conserve your mental energy by determining your priorities, or you'll find yourself on the verge of mental exhaustion. Take up a new hobby (such as golfing, bowling, racquetball, knitting, crocheting, or model building) where manual dexterity helps to relieve mental stress. There is the possibility of increased activity with siblings. You may lack sympathy for one who appears to be having problems, yet makes no attempt to do things for themselves.

Cancer on the Fourth Cusp

You can gain deep emotional satisfaction from your home life and dedication to family members. The basic root of inner security lies in the owning of a home. There is something warm and satisfying in the knowledge that you have a roof over your head and that one day it will be free and clear of mortgage payments. You can be very sensitive and sympathetic to the needs of your family members. This trend is excellent for strengthening emotional bonds with a parent.

Uranus in the Fourth House

Expect abrupt changes and even complete reversals within the home base. Circumstances outside of your control will upset the daily routine of family living. It will be very difficult to maintain a sense of security under these prevailing conditions. Electrical appliances break down at the most inopportune time. You get locked out of your home and no key and a bag of groceries or while retrieving the morning paper in your night clothes. Children may suddenly decide to get a divorce or to leave college and return home, while others leave the nest just as abruptly for a place of their own. Matters concerning a parent or other family members will compel you to make decisions that will directly affect your residence. Loss or gain can occur through the most unique situations surrounding your home base. Even an unexpected inheritance is possible.

Leo on the Fifth Cusp

This sign strengthens the emotions and passions in love relationships. They are either younger in age or give the appearance of youth. You are attracted to those of regal bearing or who project an air of class. Seek hobbies that can help you radiate outwardly in some dramatic fashion. Children will demand much of your time and energy. You can be too generous in wanting to give them the best. Sometimes pride prevents you from accepting good sound advice in connection with your children. One of your children may have creative or artistic ability. Good investments involve gold, nightclubs, sporting goods, children's games, and apparel.

Jupiter in the Fifth House

You are projecting an air of self-confidence and self-assurance that meets the approval of others, thereby increasing your popularity. There is the possibility of mingling and forming close associations with people of a higher social status than your own. This is an excellent placement for those who want to conceive children, teach, or take an active role in the educational process.

Listen to your intuition. It can provide lucky hunches when dealing with investments, gambling, the race track, or football pools. Travel may be connected with schools, attending sporting events, fan clubs, gambling casinos, or visiting children who reside in distant cities. Opportunities for romantic involvements may activate social affairs. Your free-spirited attitude may require some control to prevent casual affairs from developing into serious situations. Lawsuits or legal entanglements may surround affairs dealing with children, night clubs, and places of entertainment or sports.

Pluto in the Fifth House

Look inwardly and try to evaluate your creative urges and innovative hobbies. It may be possible to turn one into a money-making project. Intellectual pursuits through the written or spoken word should be promoted at this time. You have a flamboyant and colorful manner of self-expression that can easily sway the masses. Romantic involvements are possible with someone who is determined to change your habits, lifestyle, or mannerisms. You may "chafe at the bit" when their controlling and dictatorial attitude becomes suppressive. This is not the time to co-sign for a loan or lend money to romantic partners or children. Bitter resentments can develop when one is approached for repayment. This placement is associated with changing conditions or even reversal regarding the attitude of lovers or children.

Pluto Trine Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Jul 9, 2003

New changes, phases, and alterations of personal affairs are likely to affect conditions and circumstances in your immediate environment. New contacts or relationships may alter and improve present situations. There is a possibility of relocation, change of vocational interests, a new style of dress or hairdo, and in some cases -- even corrective plastic surgery. There is the urge to renew or rejuvenate the image you project to others, and you may unconsciously begin to change your personality. There is a likelihood of gain through joint finances, insurance, taxes, workers' compensation, alimony, or lottery winnings.

Virgo on the Sixth Cusp

Painstaking details and record-keeping may become an important part of your job. You are very accurate and thorough in the services you provide, but sometimes you go overboard, giving others more than is asked of you. Take a good look at your dietary program. Exercise may prove beneficial, as may vitamins and health foods. Avoid stressful situations that may react upon intestinal upsets.

Moon in Libra

Accept social invitations that may open the door to new relationships, possibly leading to marriage or business partnerships. There is a strong desire for love and affection -- and in some cases -- a dependency on the partner. Be selective, however, in your choice of companions. While some may be beneficial to your well being, others may prove detrimental by drawing you into an undesirable situation where the other party may be married or undergoing a difficult divorce. If you are already married, this placement will affect your present relationship either by enhancing and strengthening or by causing a wedge and possible separation. For those happily married, it is best not to tempt fate by promoting close ties with the opposite sex. Dealings with an attorney, physician, or counselor are possible during this trend. Drink plenty of fluids to maintain balance within the system and avoid the possibility of kidney problems. Other vulnerable areas of health can involve the veins or ovaries. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to provide additional insight in connection with marriage or business partnerships.

Moon in the Sixth House

This is a good time to get a thorough health check-up. Promote healthful eating habits, and a sensible diet if you are overweight and promote healthful eating habits. Give due consideration to vitamins and health foods as a supplement, if you feel they can be of benefit. Evaluate your job situation from an objective standpoint; then take the necessary steps toward positive changes if you are not satisfied with your present employment. Make it a point to take additional study courses or learn new technical skills that will increase your opportunities for advancement. The affairs of aunts and uncles or domestic pets may require personal attention. Do not permit co-workers or close ties to work on your emotional sensitivity and upset your nervous system. Check the sign position of your progressed Moon for more insight into health and work factors.

Moon Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Prg) Feb 6, 2002

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Sun (Prg-Prg) Feb 13, 2002

This is a good time to get a medical check-up as a preventive measure. Guard yourself against any potential health risks, and encourage your immediate family and close ties to do the same. You may be somewhat sluggish, with lack of energy which tends to decrease your physical constitution and stamina. Consider a vacation during this period, for a well-deserved rest and a bit of relaxation. Get away from business or vocational duties that are less likely to be productive and beneficial. This is not a good time to begin new projects or undertake risky ventures. Tread carefully when dealing with close relationships. Aggravation with your job or lack of business acumen can easily spill over onto close ties, resulting in arguments and possible separation if pushed in the wrong direction. These three months can be a trying time, with low vitality and disappointments.

Moon Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Nat) Feb 13, 2002

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Square Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Feb 28, 2002

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Prg) Mar 5, 2002

Aching knees, colds, chills, teeth problems, or low vitality are likely to make the next three months rather depressing. Everything appears to be on hold, where nothing goes right. Finances or business may be a source for concern. This is not the time for making changes of a personal nature or seeking favors from those in authority.

Moon Trine Venus (Prg-Prg) Mar 12, 2002

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be one of the best periods for financial success and social advancements. Your feelings and emotions are aroused and will find a satisfactory outlet through present or new attachments. Should situations permit, this may be the time for engagements or marriage. Social functions, invitations, and receiving of flowers or gifts are highlighted. One may also look forward to a prosperous time for finances or investments. While these opportunities may present themselves, it will be up to you to take the initiative and promote these activities into action.

Moon Semisquare Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Apr 2, 2002

Not a favorable period for pushing financial or business affairs, due to possible loss or setbacks. These three months are of such short duration that it would be wise to temporarily postpone new undertakings, travel, educational pursuits, litigations, and negotiations. It may be difficult to form new friends or acquaintances, and your social life seldom works out as planned.

Moon Semisquare Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Apr 23, 2002

A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Sextile Venus (Prg-Nat) May 22, 2002

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be a happy, relaxed, and successful period -- one in which you should take advantage of all opportunities for social advancements. Do what you can to make yourself available for new contacts that can lead to successful linking of associations. Emotions and feelings are stirred, adding new zest to the marriage state or drawing attention from the opposite sex, if single. A general improvement of financial success, receiving of social invitations, flowers, or gifts is indicated.

Moon Square Moon (Prg-Nat) Nov 14, 2002

Take preventive health measures and get a physical check-up, and encourage those in your immediate environment to do the same. Unfortunate changes can be disruptive and cause uncertainty in making important decisions. If you work with the general public or are campaigning for an election, you may be quite disappointed with the public's response. This is not the time to pursue personal or vocational advancements. Women in general and all close family relations may be a source of irritation or may be lacking in cooperation.

Moon Conjunction Mars (Prg-Nat) Dec 9, 2002

There will be an additional flow of physical and mental energy during the next three months. Be aware of this tendency, so that you can exercise caution and yet accomplish much by carefully directing this energetic activity toward the handling of difficult tasks. Find a constructive outlet, and yet at the same time be constantly aware that accidents can lurk around the corner. Use caution in all matters, especially in travels. This is not the time for rash actions and impulsive behavior that you may later regret. Avoid hasty or careless decisions, losing your temper, and going to extremes. Caution, moderation, and tolerance can help to prevent abrupt speech and serious quarrels. See your physician if fevers or infections persist.

Moon Opposition Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Apr 3, 2003

Whether or not you are living with your parents, they are bound to feel you are being defiant of their wishes. They may be against your choice of relationships, style of dress, or opposed to the idea of your wanting a place of your own. Whatever the issue, try to seek a compromise. Your sense of logic may be distorted at this time by your emotions. This is not one of the best situations under which to make major decisions or pursue personal changes. Try to put off marriage plans or joining a partnership enterprise for a few more months. At that time your emotions will not be involved when confronted with these major decisions.

Moon Sextile Pluto (Prg-Prg) Apr 16, 2003

A positive time in life in which new beginnings or changes take place. You will have the will-power to eliminate that which is no longer useful or banish undesirable habits such as overeating, smoking, or nail-biting. This is a good time to review and update, if necessary, your home, car, or life insurance. Investigate investment programs that can help you achieve emotional and financial security. There is the likelihood of monetary or material gain through the resources of others.

Moon Sextile Pluto (Prg-Nat) Apr 24, 2003

Moon Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Nat) May 7, 2003

During this trend you may experience prophetic dreams, psychic phenomena, or the ability to read the other person's mind. This is a creative period that will enable you to escape from the harshness and reality of life by indulging yourself in painting, music lessons, dancing, ceramics, or cake decorating. You may come in contact with unusually gifted people. Some may be phonies, pretending to be something they are not. Others may be mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped. Keep an invisible barrier around you, to guard against the distraught ones that will attempt to use you as a sounding board for their troubles. Hospitals and other places of confinement may directly or indirectly touch upon your life.

Moon Sextile Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jun 11, 2003

Good fortune smiles at you through general prosperity or material gain. It is a good time to push personal and business affairs, and take advantage of new opportunities for future expansion. You may get a chance to travel or experience pleasurable contacts from those living in distant cities. Your positive outlook during this trend should bring you in touch with new friends or acquaintances and increase social contacts.

Moon Square Uranus (Prg-Prg) Jul 2, 2003

A difficult three month-period in which you may be prone to say and do hasty and impulsive things without considering the consequences. You may exhibit erratic or eccentric behavior that may later be cause for regret. Changing conditions and new opportunities may come your way, but obstacles may have to be overcome if you are to take advantage of them. You may experience difficulties with commitments made to clubs and organizations. Be selective of new friends, associations, and emotional ties with the opposite sex. You may be magnetically drawn to the wrong type or prone to acts of indiscretion.

Moon Semisquare Venus (Prg-Nat) Aug 2, 2003

A few obstacles may lie in the path of romance and close ties. You may feel neglected and disappointed in the amount of emotional response you are receiving. Or you may experience difficulty in expressing your own affectional feelings toward another. These three months are not the best times for promoting new attachments, friendships, or acquaintances. Lack of emotional control may interfere with close relationships. You should also guard against overextending of personal finances, making unwise purchases, abusing the credit card, or lending money to unreliable individuals.

Moon Square Uranus (Prg-Nat) Aug 11, 2003

You may be magnetically drawn to the wrong type or prone to acts of indiscretion.

Moon Square Mercury (Prg-Prg) Sep 2, 2003

You will have to be careful when dealing with correspondences, documents, purchase agreements, contracts, or important phone calls. There may be some misleading statements or lack of clarity in verbal details that can easily be misunderstood. It would be wise to double check such matters during this trend. Negotiations, appointments, or business meetings are likely to undergo an upsetting change of plans. Too many projects can be demanding of your time and force a delay in promised deliveries. Should travel be necessary, use precaution by having the car checked in advance by a reliable mechanic. Disputes or matters of concern will surround the affairs of brothers, sisters, or other close ties. In general, these three months are not favorable for travel, purchase of a car, new ventures, or business.

Libra on the Seventh Cusp

Tact and diplomacy are a big plus now if you are involved in public relations work. You have developed a natural talent for reaching out and assisting others as a social director or a leader of society. Intellectual, well-mannered, and well-balanced individuals will touch upon your life and help you seek a compromise when confrontations arise. The affairs of partnerships, either business or marriage, will be of great importance to you during this trend.

Mars in Scorpio

There is an increase in magnetism with Mars' progressed position in Scorpio. You will, at times, have to guard against impulsive tendencies involving joint ventures. You may, out of anger or spite, sign or do something foolish that can heavily burden your monetary resources. Issues involving credit cards, mortgages, alimony, insurance benefits, loans, internal revenue, or taxes can be a source of gain or strain. Guard against destructive instincts of jealousy and suspicion. Learn to have complete faith in yourself and those in your immediate environment.

This is an excellent placement for the study of mind-control, yoga, and other subjects concerned with self-discipline or research. The men who enter your life during this trend are likely to be secretive, difficult to know and understand, and may be overly jealous or possessive.

Mars in the Seventh House

There is positive action and much enthusiasm in forming close associations or partnerships in connection with new ventures and undertakings. Cooperative teamwork can assist in successful enterprises. You can expect energetic and dynamic types of individuals to enter your life during this trend. Some may not be in agreement with your ideas, and these differences of opinion can lead to possible quarrels or separation. Control of temper and discretion in what is said and done should be exercised. An understanding of each other's role in the relationship should be clearly understood to avoid any attempt at dominance of one over the other. This placement is often associated with accidents or surgery to the partner.

Mars Conjunction Saturn (Prg-Nat) Apr 23, 2002

There is a driving ambition to achieve personal recognition and career advancements. Your attempts to initiate action along these lines appear hindered and blocked by responsibilities and restrictions. Instead of losing your temper and rebelling against authority, try using this energy in a more constructive manner. Be resourceful, organize and discipline your actions, then apply it toward work requiring hard and laborious efforts. You should be able to handle jobs demanding precision and methodical handling of tasks. A parent, boss, or older individual will either assist or hinder personal progress.

Saturn in the Seventh House

You are slowly developing a strong sense of duty, responsibility, and conscientiousness toward those in your immediate circle. A love union can be formed with someone of a vast difference in age. This person may be reserved in attitude, yet loyal and dependable. This has all the earmarks of a long-lasting relationship, but one that may not consummate in marriage for one reason or another. Sociability is limited somewhat to a small select group of friends with whom you feel more at ease. If married, there may be a cooling in the relationship, perhaps due to overwork or ill health of the partner that may interfere with sexual or emotional fulfillment. This is an excellent placement for working on or completing a difficult task that requires isolation from others.

Saturn Semisquare Midheaven (Prg-Prg) May 26, 2002

You may experience a slow trend affecting business and finances. Obstacles, hindrances, and disappointments are likely to affect progress and advancements in your career. This is not the time to change jobs or shirk responsibilities. You may experience a possible loss or separation from a parent, or disputes with bosses or a figure of authority. This trend can produce a turning point in your career through a complete change of occupation. The action is abrupt, unexpected, and generally reverses present duties. New technical equipment, computers, or machinery may be introduced in your line of work. It may be very difficult for you to maintain normal working hours, for they can fluctuate quite easily. New bosses may be difficult to get along with or may try to impose their will on you. There is a possibility of coming before the public through a personal appearance on radio or television.

Neptune in the Seventh House

Your nature is highly receptive and sensitive to the emotions and feelings of others. Vulnerability leads to manipulation from others, so be realistic in your choice of partnerships and associations. You are a dreamer in many respects, seeking the ideal in love relationships. This attitude tends to blind you to their faults which can lead to disillusionments when you discover they are far from perfect. Your marriage or business partner may be very susceptible to certain drugs or medication and should take only what is prescribed by their physician. This placement is also associated with an illness on their part that is difficult to diagnose. Artists, musicians, psychics, physicians, as well as individuals who are mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped, may touch upon your life during this trend.

Scorpio on the Eighth Cusp

You may be considering a change where sexual matters are concerned. Voluntary sterilization could be a possibility. There are strong indications of financial gains through resources of others (such as aid to dependent children, social security benefits, alimony, insurance settlements, investment programs, or an inheritance). Your position in life may change, placing you in the role of dealing with assets of others.

Sagittarius on the Ninth Cusp

Higher education will play an important role in your life during this trend. If you do not return to college, then you may take a variety of courses through adult education classes. Travel will be more frequent than it has been in the past, and you will strive constantly to expand your horizons. People from all walks of life, of foreign background and different races or creeds will touch upon your life. Legal action or participation in courts of law may be required on your part.

Sun in Capricorn

Your character is changing from the free-spirited Sagittarius sign to the persevering, practical, cautious, and secretive traits of the progressed Sun in Capricorn. You swing like a pendulum from positive to negative, sometimes yielding to various states of depression. There is a greater scope of opportunities to advance in professional or public affairs. Politics or government may influence your vocational duties. There may be a readiness to assume additional responsibilities or a supervisory position. This is a "hurry up and wait" sign, so don't expect immediate results or progress. This retarding influence holds greater promise and long-range benefits for those who persevere. A parent, a mature individual, or an authority figure will have a pronounced influence upon your career.

Sun in the Ninth House

This is the house of personal protection, influence, and good fortune. Your lofty aspirations and desire for public recognition can be achieved through higher education. Creative talents are best expressed through wide-scale media. Working with radio, television, or publications can increase self-confidence and assist in bolstering your ego. Professional people of wealth and prominence, and those of vastly different backgrounds, are likely to touch upon your life. Men can be of valuable assistance by opening the door to opportunities for future gains and advancements. This placement is associated with travel or communications with those in distant cities, in-laws, and people involved with religion. Circumstances may bring you in touch with someone who is undergoing difficult legal action.

Sun Sesquiquadrate Pluto (Prg-Nat) Feb 19, 2002

A very frustrating three-year period in which many stumbling blocks lie in the path of personal and financial success. Progress is not denied; it merely requires greater fortitude and determination to see projects through to the finish. You may feel as though you are losing control over personal situations, people in general, and those in your immediate environment. Joint finances may be a source of contention. There may be problems with the internal revenue, difficulty in making mortgage payments -- it could be alimony payments or trying to obtain an insurance settlement. There is also the probability of a major change of direction that may be extremely difficult to accept -- the kind of situation in which you will be forced to close the door on one area of life and required to open the door to a new one.

Sun Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Prg) Nov 21, 2002

This a difficult and trying three-year trend in which the vitality and energy level are lower than usual. You will have to safeguard your health by taking necessary precautions. Get flu shots, if possible, and protect yourself against colds which are likely to linger on. You will have to maintain a positive outlook on life to avoid bouts of mental depression that may occur from time to time. If you feel a lack of interest in social affairs, then use that extra time wisely. Decide what it is that you always wanted to accomplish but never had the time. Then organize your life in a constructive manner around this project and work diligently until it's completed. You will triumphantly emerge from this difficult influence, with a profound project that would not have been possible before. Be realistic in your goals, and accept the fact that progress in personal and business affairs will be confronted by hindrances and delays. There may be a possible loss of friends or someone in the domestic circle.

Sun Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Oct 3, 2003

A three-year trend in which progress is hindered and delayed. Blind optimism could lead you to go overboard on new risky projects, resulting in financial loss. Social contacts, a boss, or a father-in-law, may disagree with your expansive ideas and prove disappointing in providing assistance. This is not the best time for travel, lawsuits, religious conflicts, or undertaking new ventures. It is best to avoid excess, live quietly, and remain in the background until this trend passes. There is the possibility of loss or separation from an in-law or someone who lives in a distant city.

Capricorn on the Tenth Cusp

You have developed a strong sense of responsibility in handling your work-related duties. There is the capacity to work long and hard, and in isolated conditions, should the position call for it. There is the possibility of having to work the evening or night shift. There may be contacts with older individuals or the city government in your field of occupation. The company might be old and well established with very few young employees. There is the possibility of working in a nursing home, for the Commission on Aging or with senior citizens.

Mercury in Aquarius

Circumstances surrounding mental application in your personal or professional life have or will undergo a major change. In the past, you were content to work quietly, behind the scenes, in self-imposed isolation. This appears to be changing. Situations are placing you in a position where there is more contact with people. The field of industry and commercials may require new learning techniques. Computers, radio, TV, electronics, and possibly astrology may become part of your everyday routine. There is a lessening of mental depression as your mind develops a more positive outlook. You may attend lectures or conventions or participate in group activities for the exchange of ideas and to expand or broaden your mental outlook.

Mercury in the Tenth House

Your mental concentration and well-organized activities are the driving force behind your ambitions and aspirations. You have good logical thinking, with the ability to come straight to the point of any matter under discussion. Mental work or a good deal of short distance travels may be connected with your vocation. Lack of inner security may drive you to seek two positions simultaneously -- perhaps a part-time job that blends in with your full-time employment. A possible advancement may be offered with a contingent deal that additional study courses or technical training be undertaken to enable you to handle your new duties with confidence. Your choice of career should be intellectually stimulating, with just enough variety to keep you from getting bored; otherwise, a degree of restlessness will have you seeking greener pastures.

Mercury Opposition Uranus (Prg-Prg) Mar 28, 2002

You may experience serious opposition or difficulties in coming across to others communicatively. Others may view you as being unreasonable or inclined to go to extremes in personal opinions. You will have to deal carefully with strangers and acquaintances who may apply pressure and try to coerce you to make unwise decisions or sign important papers that you will later regret. Sudden and unexpected circumstances may result in separation from brothers, sisters, friends, and close ties.

Mercury Sextile Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Oct 17, 2002

You are entering an active period for educational or learning pursuits, journeys, new enterprises, or changes in vocational interests. You would do well in public relations, teaching, lecturing, writing, or working for the government. You will have the ability to express yourself logically and intellectually, presenting the possibility of public contact through newspaper work, radio, or television.

Mercury Semisquare Venus (Prg-Nat) Dec 7, 2002

You will have to exercise tact and diplomacy in everything you say or write. No matter how innocent your statements, there is the chance of being misunderstood. These misinterpretations can create havoc with close relationships, romance, domestic affairs, and partnerships. Avoid social gossips, and use care when signing important papers that could result in financial loss. A sister, female relative, and women in general, should be handled with kid gloves. They may be a source for concern or friction in everyday affairs.

Mercury Opposition Uranus (Prg-Nat) Feb 20, 2003

You may experience serious opposition or difficulties in coming across to others communicatively. Others may view you as being unreasonable or inclined to go to extremes in personal opinions. You will have to deal carefully with strangers and acquaintances who may apply pressure and try to coerce you to make unwise decisions or sign important papers that you will later regret. Sudden and unexpected circumstances may result in separation from brothers, sisters, friends, and close ties.

Midheaven Sesquiquadrate Jupiter (Prg-Nat) May 31, 2003

This is not a very fortunate trend. Business and finances are at a slow pace, almost to the point of damaging your credit rating. This is not the time to undertake new ventures or a business enterprise. There will be a lack of cooperation with influential people, bosses, and government officials. Be careful in signing important contracts; you won't want to take on more than what you can actually handle at this time. Possible disputes involving social

Aquarius on the Eleventh Cusp

You work well with large groups of people and may volunteer your services to causes that help to benefit mankind. You are attracted to friends that are different and unconventional, and are willing to do crazy things at the spur of the moment. Clubs and organizations that deal with airplane modeling, computers, CB's, UFO's, or astrology would hold your interest more than others. This sign is often associated with step-children or a daughter or son-in-law who may have a child from a previous marriage or relationship.

Venus in Aquarius

As Venus progresses into the positive sign of Aquarius, you will leave behind some of your inhibitive feelings toward the opposite sex. You are beginning to feel more at ease with people. There is a pronounced desire to join various organizations or participate in group activities. Your circle of acquaintances will expand as your fondness for the social life increases. Women, friends, and organizations can prove financially rewarding or expensive. Step-children or children of close ties may play an important role in your life in the near future.

Venus in the Eleventh House

Friendships, group activities, and social contacts are important to you. Any club or organization would benefit from your expertise as a public relations promoter or as a social director. However, if full cooperation is not forthcoming from other members, you may lose your interest in club work and drop out. You are well liked by friends and casual acquaintances, who may endow you with gifts or social invitations as a way of showing their high regard for you. Relationships with a step-child, a daughter-in-law, or with other women will play a prominent role in your life.

Pisces on the Twelfth Cusp

Strong psychological influences can have a devastating effect if you do not maintain a positive outlook on life. There are many ways to temporarily escape from what appears to be a hopeless situation -- music, guitar or organ lessons, dancing or art, fishing, photography, or swimming are excellent choices. Even leaping back into bed for a few hours of pleasurable daydreaming after the children go off to school can offer a positive respite. Or, take long walks in the woods, gaze at the clouds, watch the leaves dancing on the tree tops, and listen to the birds as they chirp a happy tune. You'll return to the hectic world feeling refreshed, at one with the universe, and once again able to cope with the problems of everyday stress. Avoid medication not prescribed by your physician. Avoid the temptation to overindulge in alcoholic beverages or mind-expanding drugs. You have excellent psychic and intuitive ability -- apply it toward positive situations.
